[PDF] Islamic History: A Very Short Introduction

The history of Islam concerns the political, social, economic and cultural developments of Islamic civilization. Most historians accept that Islam originated in Mecca and Medina at the start of the 7th century CE. Muslims regard Islam as a return to the original faith of the prophets, such as Jesus, Solomon, David, Moses, Abraham, Noah and Adam, with the submission (Islam) to the will of Allah.

From the 7th century onwards, the history that is taken to be 'Islamic' is that in which Islam was a politically, religiously, or culturally dominant force. Islamic history is the product of people and their actions. But people in the pre-modern world were the product of their environment.

Islamic History A Very Short Introduction - SILO.PUB

The history is rather sparse, as the title implies, but it makes a nice companion to something more detailed like Berkey's "The Formation of Islam." Well-written throughout, value comes particularly in the analysis and insight developed in the later chapters and conclusion, though some may find it "controversial."
