Make Quilts As Life Gives

A quilt suggests that many and varied pieces can successfully be assembled and stitched together to create a beautiful and functional whole without any of the pieces losing their unique characteristics. This refers to life, you and me, families, neighbors and the world. Someone once said that as we were planning our life like squares for a quilt in many piles—an angel sat before us sewing our quilt—creating a tapestry that becomes our life.

The first quilt I ever made was for my daughter, when she was a year old. I wanted to "keep" all her beautiful baby clothes (fashion industry friends give the prettiest baby clothes!). Patchwork seemed inspiring to me, but I had never made a quilt before, had no one to ask, and no real idea what I was doing.
